

A STUDY OF THE CAUSES OF GIRLS DROPOUT IN HARYANA

SURENDER SINGH RANA¹ & SUMAN RANI²

¹Associate Professor & Principal, Tika Ram College of Education, Sonapat Affiliated to Maharishi Dayanand University, Rohtak, Haryana, India

²Research Scholar, Department of Education, Maharishi Dayanand University, Rohtak, Haryana, India

ABSTRACT

Present study of Causes of Girls' Dropout in Haryana is studied in Mokalwas (District Gurgaon) village of Haryana. Being Gurgaon a part of National Capital Region and Mokalwas situated very close to Gurgaon City (28 kms) with all the facilities, still high number of girls' dropout is a matter of serious worry.

The number of girls' dropout in Mokalwas consisted maximum contribution from Muslim and Rajput communities. Main causes of girls' dropout are traditional thinking, failure, help demanded from them in household work and labour activities, lack of education among parents, lack of interest in subjects, inferiority among poor, backward families, etc.

KEYWORDS: Dropout, Primary Education, Girls, Rural, Socio-Economic