

LAND ACQUISITION AND USE: KEY FACTOR FOR EQUITY, EQUALITY AND WOMEN EMPOWERMENT IN AFRICA-UGANDA EXPERIENCE

ANUMAKA, IJEOMA BLESSING

Senior Lecturer, Kampala International University, Uganda

ABSTRACT

This paper attempts to discuss women land rights, acquisition and use as a key factor to equity, equality and empowerment in economic development of our society.

It examines the plight of women and the impact of ignorance of law, poor representation of women and mistrust of men in respect of women's inheritance of land and property specifically in Ndwana, Kabale, Uganda.

KEYWORDS: Land rights and use, Equity, Equality, Women empowerment